DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Katherine Pauley on June 10, 2004.

The application has been amended in order to overcome the prior art as follows:

Claims

In claim 1, line 3 after "chip" insert - - surrounded by insulating material- -,

In claim 1, line 8 delete "by soldering or pressure welding" and insert - - such that the first and second main surfaces are formed on the predetermined two power terminals--;

In claim 4, Line 4 delete "the second main surface" and in line 5 delete "one of the predetermined;

In claim 4, Line 4 after "connected to" insert - - another power terminal of said- - and in line 5 after "power terminals" insert - - by soldering or pressure welding" and in Line 1 after "wherein" insert - - one face of said at least one semiconductor chip interposed between said two power terminals is connected to one power terminal of said two power terminals by soldering or pressure welding, and another face - -;

In claim 11, line 3 after "chip" insert - - surrounded by insulating material- -,

In claim 11, line 12 after "pressure welding" insert - - such that the first and second main surfaces are formed on the predetermined two power terminals--.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not disclose or make obvious three power terminals provided one above the other with a chip surrounded by insulating material sandwiched between and electrically connected to two power terminals wherein one terminal is parallel with a first main surface of the chip and the other terminal is parallel to a second main surface that is opposite and parallel the first main surface including all the limitations of the independent claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
